Glaser Weil is pleased to announce that litigators Patricia L. Glaser and Jesse B. Levin have been recognized in the 2025 Lawdragon 500 Leading Global Entertainment, Sports & Media Lawyers guide. This inaugural edition honors top attorneys shaping the future of entertainment law across the globe through their impactful representation of film stars, sports icons, studios, networks, leagues, teams, major media companies and up-and-coming talent, alike.

Glaser is one of the most respected names in entertainment and business litigation. As Chair of Glaser Weil's Litigation Department, she is sought after for high-stakes disputes and high-profile matters, representing Fortune 500 companies, major studios and public figures in complex commercial, entertainment and intellectual property cases. Her strategic litigation victories and advisory work have helped shape the landscape of entertainment law, cementing both her and the Firm's reputation as industry leaders.

Levin, a partner in the Litigation Department, is a trusted advocate for clients navigating high-stakes disputes in entertainment and corporate litigation. Known for his strategic approach and relentless advocacy, he regularly represents podcast hosts, producers and networks in intellectual property disputes, contract litigation and business divorces. His work in entertainment technology—including matters involving content ownership, royalty structures and digital rights management—demonstrates a deep understanding of the evolving intersection between media, technology and traditional entertainment law.

Glaser Weil is honored to have two of its distinguished attorneys recognized among the world's top entertainment lawyers.
